

1 (11:10 a.m.)

2 THE COURT: Good morning, everybody. Please be seated
3 and Government call the case.

4 MS. MCGUINN: Your Honor, good morning. Assistant 5 United States Attorney Colleen McGuinn on behalf of the 6 Government calling for this court United States of America v.
7 Christopher Bendann. This is Criminal Case No. JKB-23-278.

8 THE COURT: Good morning to you. And for the defense.

9 MR. FLOWERS: For the defense Your Honor, good 10 morning. Kobie Flowers on behalf of Mr. Christopher Bendann.
11 I'm joined at counsel table by my co-counsel Mr. Michael 12 Abrams.

13 THE COURT: Good morning to all of you. Particularly 14 to you, Mr. Bendann.

15 Everybody can be seated. All right. So, Mr. Bendann, we 16 are here today because a grand jury of this federal court has 17 returned an indictment against you. An indictment is a 18 charging document that sets out a series of allegations that 19 the Government has made regarding violations of federal law. I 20 am aware that there has been prior state proceedings that may 21 or may not be related to this. This is, as your lawyer I'm 22 sure has explained, federal court essentially starting over.

23 What we're going to do today is go through the charges, go 24 through the possible penalties. I want to make clear, today is 25 not your trial. It's not a motions hearing. But it's still a

1 very important day so if there's anything that you need to talk 2 to your lawyer about, or lawyers about, you can just raise your 3 hand and I'll give you the time that you need to do that.

4 We're going to then discuss some important constitutional 5 rights that you have. We're going to address the topic of 6 counsel in this federal case. And then we're going to move on 7 to the question of detention pending what happens next in this 8 case.

9 Most importantly, do you understand what I've said so far?

10 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I do, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Can you tell me just the year, just 12 the year, that you were born?

13 THE DEFENDANT: 1984.

14 THE COURT: All right. Are you able to read, write 15 and understand the English language?

16 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I am, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Are you under the influence of any 18 substance, or do you have any medical condition that impairs 19 your ability to understand what I'm saying right now?

20 THE DEFENDANT: No, I do not, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: You feel like you hear me and you 22 understand what we're doing here today?

23 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I do.

24 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Let's get to the 25 charges that are alleged here in federal court. Do you have a

1 copy of the indictment?

2 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I do. Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: What I'm looking at, to be clear, is case 4 23-cr-278-JKB, Document No. 1. And that's what you have?

5 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: All right. So this indictment alleges six 7 violations of federal law. Counts 1 through 5 allege, 8 essentially, the same allegation but on separate dates.

9 Specifically, Counts 1 through 5 allege that on 10 September 16th, 2017, June 21st, 2018, August 26, 2018, 11 January 2nd, 2019, and February 9th, 2019, that you, knowingly, 12 attempted to and did employ, use, persuade, induce, entice, and 13 coerce a minor victim to engage in sexually-explicit conduct as 14 defined under the relevant federal law for the purpose of 15 producing a visual depiction of such conduct knowing and having 16 reason to know that such a visual depiction was produced and 17 transmitted using materials that were mailed, shipped, and 18 transmitted in interstate and foreign commerce by means, 19 including by computer, and that such visual depictions were 20 actually transported and transmitted using any means and 21 facility in interstate commerce in and affecting interstate 22 commerce all in violation of 18 U.S.C. 2251(a).

23 So Counts 1 through 5, if you were to be convicted on 24 Counts 1 through 5, these carry the same possible penalty.
25 That possible penalty is a mandatory minimum of 15 years in

1 federal custody, up to a maximum of 30 years in federal 2 custody.

3 As is the case with any federal conviction, if you were 4 convicted, you would be subject to a term of supervised 5 release, which is sort of a fancy word for probation, that 6 would follow any incarceration.

7 Counts 1 through 5 carry a five-year mandatory term of 8 supervised release up to the possibility of a lifetime
9 commitment to supervised release. Also Counts 1 through 5 10 carry a possibility of a 250,000-dollar fine.

11 Count 6 alleges that in and between September 1st, 2017
12 and January 23rd, 2023, in the district of Maryland, that you 13 knowingly possessed material that contained an image of child 14 pornography as defined under the relevant law which image had 15 been mailed, shipped, and transported using any means or 16 facility of interstate and foreign commerce in and affecting 17 interstate and foreign commerce by any means, including by 18 computer, and it was produced using material that had been 19 mailed, shipped, and transported in and affecting interstate 20 and foreign commerce by any means, including by computer.

21 Count 6, along with Counts 1 through 5 in the indictment, 22 provides a little bit more specific detail as to what the 23 images are, what they're named, and where they were found, and 24 that is the same with Count 6.

25 If convicted on Count 6, a possible penalty carries, I

1 believe, zero to 10 years in custody; five years of supervised 2 release up to life of supervised release; and a 200 -- up to a 3 250,000-dollar fine. And in federal court, if you are 4 convicted on any count, there is a required 100-dollar special 5 assessment per count.

6 There's also a forfeiture provision attached to this 7 indictment. Not uncommon. What it is is that if you were to 8 be convicted the Government would seek to the forfeiter of the 9 items listed therein or oftentimes substitute assets if those 10 items are not located.

11 Let me be clear that these penalties I've listed are not 12 necessarily what you would get if you were convicted and, 13 again, I'm not saying you will be convicted. But do you 14 understand what the charges are and what the possible penalties 15 are?

16 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I do, Your Honor. Thank you.

17 THE COURT: You have many important constitutional 18 rights and we're going to talk about two of them right now.
19 One is your Fifth Amendment right to remain silent. You do not 20 have to give any statements to the Government or Government 21 agents about your charges. You do not have to answer any 22 questions posed to you by the Government. If you were to give 23 a statement or you were to answer any questions, anything you 24 say could be used against you in court.

25 Do you understand your fifth amendment right to remain

1 silent?

2 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I do, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: All right. Under the Sixth Amendment you 4 have the right to be represented by an attorney at all stages
5 of this case, starting obviously now and moving forward. You 6 can hire an attorney or you can ask, if you can't afford to 7 hire an attorney, to have one appointed for you.

8 I see that Mr. Flowers is here next to you, which 9 indicates to me that you are going to retain or have retained 10 the services of Mr. Flowers.

11 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I have.

12 THE COURT: Do you concur?

13 MR. FLOWERS: Yes, I concur, Your Honor. We just 14 found out about the indictment this morning at 5:00 a.m. I've 15 been representing Mr. Bendann in the state case and also 16 there's a sealed federal case. This indictment is something 17 that we certainly need to speak about, my ongoing 18 representation for this. So what I'd like to do, Your Honor, 19 with the Court's indulgence, is enter a conditional entry of 20 appearance and, once we've kind of work out things, return to 21 the court and let you know I'm either in or I'm out with 22 respect to the new indictment I just found out about today.

23 THE COURT: Understood. I completely understand. I
24 think the way we can proceed is, first, I have signed an order 25 to unseal the indictment and so the case should be unsealed, if 1 it isn't already, it should be though.

2 Second, you can enter your appearance in the case and 3 obviously if circumstances require you to move to withdraw that 4 can be done by motion and the request can be made to either 5 substitute counsel or if conditions are appropriate to seek 6 appointment of court-appointed counsel. I'll ask that you do 7 enter that appearance. It's understood that there needs to be 8 some additional conversations between you and your client.

9 That said, Mr. Bendann, I'm confident you understand your 10 Sixth Amendment right to counsel and you understand what your 11 lawyer just said regarding your representation?

12 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I do, Your Honor. Thank you.

13 THE COURT: All right. So the next issue is what do 14 we do, let me pause for a second and remind the Government, as 15 required by Rule 5(f), the United States is ordered to produce 16 all exculpatory evidence to the defendant pursuant to Brady v.
17 Maryland and its progeny, not doing so in a timely manner may 18 result in sanctions, including seclusion of evidence, adverse 19 jury instructions, dismissal of charges, contempt proceedings, 20 vacating a conviction or disciplinary action against the 21 prosecution. And I will enter an order to that effect now.

22 So let's move on to the next question. What is the 23 Government's position on pretrial detention?

24 MS. MCGUINN: Your Honor, the Government is seeking 25 detention.

1 THE COURT: What is the basis the Government is 2 seeking pretrial detention?

3 MS. MCGUINN: Your Honor, the Government is seeking 4 detention based on the rebuttable presumption under 5 3142(e)(3)(E) because this case involved a minor and is 6 specifically charged under 18 United States Code 2251.

7 THE COURT: So the presumption would kick in at the 8 hearing itself and I think is it 3142(f)(1)(E), I was looking 9 at it as I ran up here. That would allow the Government to 10 seek detention in the first place?

11 MS. MCGUINN: Yes.

12 THE COURT: Okay. So the Government's moving under 13 3142(f)(1)(E) but --

14 MS. MCGUINN: Yes, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: And I don't mean to, you know, be too 16 persnickety, but I want to make sure we're on the same page.

17 MS. MCGUINN: Yes, sir.

18 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Bendann, what the 19 Government is saying is this, under the Bail Reform Act the 20 relevant law that controls pretrial release in federal court, 21 the Government is only allowed to seek the pretrial detention 22 of a defendant under a few specific circumstances. One of 23 those specific circumstances is outlined in 18 U.S.C.
24 3142(f)(1)(E), which is if an offense allegedly involves a 25 minor victim, then the Government has the right to seek your

1 detention. Doesn't necessarily mean that they succeed in that.
2 Doesn't necessarily mean that you are to be detained. But it 3 does allow the Government to make that position, which they 4 have now made.

5 What's your position on pretrial detention?

6 MR. FLOWERS: Your Honor, my position is that 7 Mr. Bendann should be released on the pretrial condition that 8 he's already been released on. He's been, with respect to the 9 state case, has had perfect compliance for six months. I 10 understand that the Government is also going to ask this Court 11 for a continuance. I oppose that continuance because the 12 Government cannot make a threshold showing that Mr. Bendann 13 will be detained, given that he has already been released
14 under, essentially, the same document charges. I understand 15 that there's a rebuttable presumption.

16 THE COURT: Yes.

17 MR. FLOWERS: Our position is that presumption has 18 already been persuasively rebutted because we have a judge who 19 has released Mr. Bendann, again, on essentially the same 20 charges. In fact, in the state case Mr. Bendann is charged 21 with rape. And I have a copy of the indictment so I can make a 22 more fulsome argument if the Court is interested in that. But 23 at a high level, the defense is asking for Mr. Bendann to be 24 released on the same conditions that he has complied with for 25 six months without fail. Showed up to no less than nine

1 hearings, including sealed hearings in this courthouse without 2 issue. And that the Government, again, cannot make that 3 threshold showing that somehow Mr. Bendann has no criminal 4 record, is a flight risk, by preponderance of the evidence, and 5 is a danger by clear and convincing evidence.

6 So, again, at a high level that's the defense's position, 7 Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: And I appreciate that. I want to sort of 9 cut it up a little bit because, first, your arguments are 10 noted. And they are arguments that tend to weigh on the 11 question of pretrial detention, whether it's appropriate or 12 not. Unfortunately, my reading of the Bail Reform Act 3142(f) 13 says "The hearing shall be held immediately upon the person's 14 first appearance before the judicial officer, unless that 15 person or the attorney for the Government seeks a continuance.
16 In that situation, where the Government seeks a continuance, 17 they have up to three days, not including the weekend, to 18 prepare."

19 And you obviously have the right to ask for up to 20 five-days. You made a representation -- I'm going to kick it 21 back over to the Government, as to whether you're asking for 22 those additional days?

23 MS. MCGUINN: I am, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Okay. This question that you're raising 25 as to whether there needs to be any additional showing to get

1 those three days, unfortunately for you -- I'm saying 2 unfortunately not because of my own opinion, I'm saying with 3 respect to your argument.

4 MR. FLOWERS: I understand, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: -- the Bail Reform Act doesn't appear to 6 have any limitation in it. I have not done extensive research 7 on it but my understanding, and certainly the past practice in 8 this court, has been if the Government seeks that continuance, 9 they get that continuance. And if you seek that continuance, 10 you get that continuance.

11 MR. FLOWERS: Right.

12 THE COURT: Do you have any authority that --

13 MR. FLOWERS: I do, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Okay.

15 MR. FLOWERS: I anticipated this coming up and I do 16 have some authority. I'd like to cite for the Court a Ninth 17 Circuit case, that's the best we could do. It is 768 F.2d, 18 1141. Again, that's a Ninth Circuit case that came out in 19 1985. And in that case, I would just like to kind of read key 20 parts of that case as the Ninth Circuit was interpreting the 21 Bail Reform Act with respect to this very issue.

22 The Ninth Circuit said, quote, "It's confirmed by the 23 explanation in the Senate report that provisions for 24 continuance were to permit a limited period of time for 25 preparation for the hearing" -- and this is the key piece --

1 "particularly if the Defendant was arrested soon after the 2 commission of the offense which he is charged," unquote.

3 I'm reading from Page 1144. So I want to stop there for a 4 minute and take a beat. There's a couple other points that 5 this case brings out, and I also want to talk about the 6 practice of this courthouse.

7 This first point here, this idea that when the Defendant 8 or the accused was arrested soon after the commission of the 9 offense, that's certainly not what has happened here. These 10 charges go all the way back to 2017. The possession charges, 11 as the Court is well aware, is simply because they were able to 12 take Mr. Bendann's electronic devices, that's the only way we 13 would get up to even January of 2023.

14 So the Ninth Circuit has explained, again, it makes sense 15 that you would have a delay when the charge -- when the alleged 16 offense happened and then the person is arrested because people 17 need to figure out who is who and what is that. It's not the 18 case here.

19 In fact, Judge Hurson, the government first arrested 20 Mr. Bendann back in February of 2023.

21 THE COURT: Well, the state government.

22 MR. FLOWERS: The state government, right. And what 23 the state government did was on February 1st of 2023, there was 24 a state arrest and SWAT team that entered Mr. Bendann's house, 25 we'll get to that momentarily. But then on February 9th, the

1 federal government was involved and they issued a search 2 warrant to take the devices.

3 The point being, Judge Hurson, is that the Government has 4 known about this case for at least six months by virtue of its 5 search warrant. And we know that to get a search warrant 6 typically there is an investigation that precedes that, right.
7 So for the Government to come into court today having issued a 8 second -- or having issued an arrest warrant on its own time 9 and then to say we need time to prepare, again, that goes 10 against kind of what the Ninth Circuit's reasoning says about 11 this particular part of the statute. So that's point one.

12 THE COURT: Let me stop you there.

13 MR. FLOWERS: Yeah.

14 THE COURT: First, you know, if you're talking Ninth 15 Circuit 1985, we're in the Fourth Circuit. I love the Ninth 16 Circuit states but that doesn't apply here. And I understand 17 your position with respect to that sentence which, if I recall, 18 you said uses the words "particularly if," which doesn't seem 19 to necessarily be a condition. It's just an adjective of sorts 20 to describe, you know, what a condition might look like.

21 So that said, I would ask the Government this unique 22 question that you just posed with respect to the delay, if you 23 want to be heard on that, I think that's --

24 MS. MCGUINN: I will briefly say, Your Honor, that the 25 Government has access to the evidence in this case officially

1 less than a week or just about a week that we've been able to 2 look at devices and electronic evidence. So we haven't -- the 3 Government being the U.S. Attorney's Office and the FBI, have 4 not been investigating this case for six months outside of 5 that. Maybe some limited information, understanding what the 6 state had already done, maybe tagged onto some of the things 7 they have done. But not really. This is production, 8 essentially, sexual exploitation of a child, but production, 9 but production of child pornography. You don't have child 10 pornography unless you have the electronic evidence, and as I 11 indicated the Government has not had access to that evidence, 12 only for about a week. And, in fact, the search is ongoing on 13 what was approximately, definitely more than 10 electronic 14 devices.

15 So it's much different than how counsel is couching this 16 that we've just been sitting here twiddling our thumbs for the 17 last six months, when, in fact, our hands have been tied for 18 six months.

19 MR. FLOWERS: If I may respond, Your Honor?

20 THE COURT: Yes, briefly. That's fine.

21 MR. FLOWERS: Thank you, Your Honor. I appreciate 22 what the Court is saying, that, look, this is a Ninth Circuit
23 case, it's not the Fourth Circuit case. I certainly understand 24 the Court's opinion that it's not binding on this Court. But 25 the Court also said that there's really no case law that tells

1 the Court one way or the other where to go. So we've brought 2 case law to the Court for it to consider, right.

3 And I think what's most important here is that the Ninth 4 Circuit did go into and talk about the legislative history of 5 the Bail Reform Act and it talked about how it's to protect the 6 defendant because he's the one who remains detained pending 7 this continuance. He's been out with these charges over his 8 head for six months.

9 THE COURT: Yeah.

10 MR. FLOWERS: And has never had a problem.

11 THE COURT: Which I think is something that would be 12 very relevant at a detention hearing. I think the only problem 13 I'm having is just the issue is when is that detention hearing
14 to be held. Because I will certainly take notice of everything 15 you're saying, which is that he has been on some form of 16 release in state court for what appears to be very serious 17 charges. He also has, as you said, shown up to numerous court 18 appearances, has not left the area without authorization, at 19 least according to your representations, which, again, I will 20 credit.

21 These are all very, I'm sure the Government would agree, 22 compelling argument at a detention hearing. It's just the 23 issue we're having right now and when do we have the detention 24 hearing. And I am not convinced by the Ninth Circuit authority 25 that that detention hearing can happen today because the

1 Government does, under the statute -- and I agree, my question
2 about case law was because the language of the statute is so 3 plain I'm not sure we even get there but that's what I was 4 inquiring about.

5 I will --

6 MR. FLOWERS: Your Honor, one last point about that.

7 THE COURT: Yeah, please.

8 MR. FLOWERS: I get --

9 THE COURT: No, I want you to make your record. So 10 please go ahead.

11 MR. FLOWERS: Thank you very much, Your Honor. I 12 understand exactly what the statute says and, again, I've 13 provided this case law. The fundamental problem we have here, 14 Your Honor, is essentially what the Government is allowed to 15 come and do if the Court doesn't require the Government at 16 least to make a threshold showing. Again, not to have a 17 full-blown detention hearing, but I haven't heard a threshold 18 showing that he is a danger or a flight risk. Because if we 19 don't allow for that threshold showing, we allow for what 20 happened here today. The Government gets to come in, 5:00 in 21 the morning, issue an arrest warrant --

22 THE COURT: Let's not forget is based on a grand 23 jury's probable cause finding. I want to make sure we aren't 24 creating this out of necessarily thin air, that the entire Bail 25 Reform Act is triggered by the return of indictment or a sworn 1 complaint.

2 MR. FLOWERS: That's right.

3 THE COURT: But I take your point.

4 MR. FLOWERS: Please, and I just want to amplify a 5 little bit, it's really important. We all understand that 6 certainly there's been a grand jury who has heard evidence, 7 without a defense attorney present, and has issued an 8 indictment. We also understand that that's a process that the 9 Government and the Government alone controls. That the 10 Government all the time decides when to bring a case and when 11 not to bring a case while working with the grand jury.

12 Here, the Government decided to bring this case today.
13 Arrest him at 5:00 a.m. in the morning on a Friday and Your 14 Honor should take into account they did the same thing, albeit 15 the state government, six months ago on February the 1st.

16 And so what we have here, Your Honor, is an abuse of 17 power, really. Because they know he's been out for six months.
18 They know that he has counsel. He's made every single hearing.
19 They know that if and when we get to a detention hearing 20 they're going to have a very difficult time proving that there 21 are not conditions of release for him to be out on. Knowing 22 that, they come in on a Friday morning, with a SWAT team, 23 trained lasers on him and his father, who is in the courtroom
24 today. A man who has no criminal record. They bring him here 25 and they say --

1 THE COURT: Yeah.

2 MR. FLOWERS: -- we're going to detain you for as long 3 as we can, knowing that you're going to get out. That's 4 punitive and abuse of power.

5 THE COURT: Let me stop you right through. I 6 appreciate the argument, and I understand the position you're 7 in and your client is in.

8 Mr. Bendann, let me start by saying one thing, what I'm 9 saying in my findings on this particular issue has no bearing 10 on whether you will detained. That is a question that is 11 answered under other sections of the Bail Reform Act. And let 12 me be clear, I understand your attorney's frustration with the 13 process but there's really nothing necessarily abnormal about 14 the way the process has unfolded here with respect to just the 15 literal return of an indictment in this case and then you're 16 brought in for an initial appearance.

17 And the statute is clear that the Government has that time
18 to prepare. This is not uncommon in this courthouse that there 19 are arrests, that the Bail Reform Act is invoked, that that 20 time period is invoked and that there is a delay between the 21 arrest and the detention hearing. And oftentimes people are 22 released, oftentimes they are not.

23 What I am saying right now is simply that I will give the 24 Government that additional time and the question then becomes 25 what date will it be? It has to be Monday, Tuesday. You know,

1 I don't know how many days the Government needs. But I 2 certainly credit counsel's argument that even though your 3 investigation of the literal federal charges, in essence, the 4 federal hook, if you will, maybe just started, that your 5 investigation into the Defendant, your awareness of the 6 Defendant's situation in the community, your awareness of the 7 Defendant's release in the state case, that can't be new to the 8 Government. I don't know how much preparation is needed.

9 Let me say one more thing before you respond. I'm sitting 10 here with a pretrial services report in front of me which was 11 just completed, thank you very much pretrial for your prompt 12 work, that recommends detention. There's a lot of information 13 that obviously the Court has not had an opportunity to review.

14 So while the Bail Reform Act, as I think your lawyer 15 pointed out, is certainly meant to move the process along for 16 the defendant, I want to make clear that this is not a case 17 that is quickly disposed of by a judge sitting in my position.
18 You need to review this material. You need to make the 19 necessary inquiries and obviously listen to the arguments from 20 counsel.

21 With respect to the date of the hearing, what is the 22 Government's position? Do we have a date that's open? Have 23 you talked about a date?

24 MS. MCGUINN: We have not due to counsel wanting to 25 have it today.

1 THE COURT: Okay.

2 MS. MCGUINN: We just did not have that discussion, 3 Your Honor. I am available Monday. I am available 4 certainly --

5 THE COURT: Monday sounds like it might be the day to 6 do it given the arguments that have been raised.

7 What's the Court's schedule on Monday look like?

8 THE CLERK: Your Honor, we can do Monday at 10:00 a.m.

9 MS. MCGUINN: That's fine for the Government.

10 THE COURT: Are you available?

11 MR. FLOWERS: I'll make myself available. I actually 12 have a deposition that I will cancel. I do want to, for 13 purposes of the record --

14 THE COURT: Yes, bring, the other issue -- let me be 15 clear, I'm not going to put this as a basis for not having 16 to -- this court's calendar is absolutely packed all day. And 17 so having decided this issue, I'm happy to let you make your 18 final points but I've got to move forward.

19 MR. FLOWERS: Your Honor, I understand that you
20 decided the issue, but for purposes of the record I definitely 21 need to at least provide substantive information given what the 22 Court has said.

23 First off, I go back to the Ninth Circuit case, 768 F.2d 24 1141, that Court said specifically, and I quote, at Page 1146, 25 "The liberty interest of the individual who has yet to be tried

1 should not be subordinated to the scheduling problems of 2 counsel or the courts," end quote.

3 I just want to make sure that was there for the record.
4 The Court also mentioned that the pretrial services report 5 recommends detention.

6 I want to submit to the Court a -- what I'm going to mark 7 as Defense Exhibit 3 and Defense Exhibit 2. I'll provide 8 copies to counsel. But this is an order from judge -- may I 9 approach, Your Honor?

10 THE COURT: Yes, of course.

11 MR. FLOWERS: This is a order from Judge Alexander, 12 along with petition briefing from Judge Alexander, who decided 13 based off of essentially the same case to go ahead and release
14 Mr. Bendann. So with respect to the pretrial services report 15 that recommends detention, again, you have a circuit judge in 16 Towson who recommended that this man be released.

17 Then, finally, there's some misstatements in the pretrial
18 services report that I just want to correct on the record.

19 THE COURT: Well, that's probably a good idea to 20 quickly do that now. Have you talked to the Government about 21 what the alleged misstatements are?

22 MR. FLOWERS: No, I haven't had a chance. This 23 statement might be overstated. Maybe just -- it's not as 24 accurate as it could be. I just want to bring that --

25 THE COURT: That's a different issue. Why don't we

1 save this until Monday. If there is something that could be 2 elaborated on, that's not uncommon. Just make sure and, in 3 fact, I'll tell you -- and you know this, you've been around 4 this courthouse a little bit. Pretrial services will be happy
5 to hear any additions, any -- they'll take it. They'll add it 6 into the report.

7 One quick question I did have with respect to your 8 client's current conditions, just so it's on the record for 9 Monday. Is there any sort of monitoring? As you know, the 10 Adam Walsh Act, in certain circumstances, I believe this may be 11 one, requires some sort of monitoring if someone is ultimately 12 released.

13 Is Mr. Bendann on some sort of electronic monitoring in 14 the state system?

15 MR. FLOWERS: Yes, Mr. Bendann is on electronic 16 monitoring.

17 THE COURT: Okay. Second question for the Government, 18 you may not know the answer to this, what is the status of the 19 state case now that this case has been federally charged?

20 MS. MCGUINN: I don't and can't speak to that. That's 21 a separate entity.

22 THE COURT: Okay.

23 MR. FLOWERS: I can tell you, Your Honor, if the Court 24 will indulge me, we have a trial date September the 14th. We 25 have a motions date -- I'm sorry -- trial date December the 1 14th, motions date in a couple of weeks on September the 6th.

2 THE COURT: Okay.

3 MR. FLOWERS: And also --

4 THE COURT: Go ahead.

5 MR. FLOWERS: If you're going to remand Mr. Bendann 6 back to custody, I would ask that he be protected. He was on 7 suicide watch when he was briefly -- we had to go through this 8 song and dance in the state court. He was ultimately released.
9 He's got some mental health issues. He suffered a heart attack
10 back in April because of the pressure of fighting these cases 11 when he was locked up. So it's, again, another reason why we 12 would like to have a detention hearing today and I understand 13 the Court's rulings.

14 THE COURT: I understand. That ruling has been made.
15 It's going to be Monday at 10:00 a.m. As to the health 16 concerns, have you completed the medical form, can you do that?
17 It's in front of you on the table.

18 Mr. Bendann, here's what I'm going to do. You are going 19 to be held in federal custody over the weekend. You will be 20 returned to this courthouse Monday at 10:00 a.m. for your 21 detention hearing.

22 I will make the release order and the memo that was filed 23 in your state case a part of this record and it will be 24 available to the judge, whoever it is on Monday, may be me, may 25 be somebody else.

1 MR. FLOWERS: I think it's Judge Coulson.

2 THE COURT: It's Judge Coulson. It'll be Judge
3 Coulson on Monday. It'll be made available to Judge Coulson.

4 I will take your lawyer's -- we'll complete, we 5 colloquially call it medical form where it's listed any 6 medications that you're on, any health need you have. I'm 7 going to tell you the same thing I tell everyone that comes 8 into this courtroom, which is you will be taken to a detention 9 facility following this hearing. Act as though they did not 10 receive any paperwork. They're going to ask you what your 11 health concerns are, please be very vocal about that. Let them 12 know what your health concerns are, let them know what your 13 considerations are.

14 I'm going to take the representations that were made to me
15 by your counsel, I'm going to contact the United States 16 Marshals and let them know specifically what was just told to 17 me in court so they will be aware of the situation and aware of 18 the past health and mental health issues.

19 This detention is, as you will see on this form, temporary 20 detention. It is only in place until Monday at 10:00 a.m.
21 Monday at 10:00 a.m. you will return to court. You will have a 22 detention hearing under the Bail Reform Act where the 23 Government will have to make its case for why you must be 24 detained pretrial.

25 As you've heard them say, there is something called a

1 presumption of detention. As I'm sure your lawyer will point 2 out, that is something that can be rebutted, I believe, with 3 some credible evidence, and he's presented that information 4 today. But that whole discussion about where you will be 5 pending your federal trial will happen at Monday at 10:00 a.m.

6 All the arguments that your lawyer has raised I'm sure
7 will be repeated and then some on Monday and that decision 8 would be made. This is a temporary detention order that's only 9 in place until 10:00 a.m. at Monday.

10 I'm going to tell you the following as well, you have been 11 in custody in the state prior to this, your lawyer has told me.
12 They do not have your health record. I would assume they do 13 not have your health records from the state. I would assume, 14 as you go into detention here for this brief period until 15 Monday at 10:00 a.m., that, again, you should act like they 16 know nothing about your case or your health conscious. So make 17 sure you are vocal to the intake folks when you are brought in 18 as to your health concerns. And I know your lawyer knows how 19 to handle that as well.

20 And the location of your pretrial detention, I do not know 21 where it will be, it will more likely than not be Chesapeake 22 Detention Facility, I'm not sure, but I will contact the 23 marshals immediately following this to relay the concerns
24 regarding suicide, regarding separation. And I will tell you 25 that I can assure they will take that very seriously.

1 Anything further from the Government?

2 MS. MCGUINN: Nothing from the Government, Your Honor.
3 Thank you very much.

4 THE COURT: From you, Mr. Flowers? All your arguments
5 are preserved and always well made.

6 MR. FLOWERS: Thank you, Your Honor. I just want to 7 make sure two exhibits are part of the record.

8 THE COURT: Yes.

9 MR. FLOWERS: I also want to make sure it's part of 10 the record that I did speak with the federal defender's office 11 and they, too, are of the mind that there needs to be a 12 threshold showing before the granting of continuance by the 13 Government.

14 THE COURT: The last question I had for you, if this 15 is made part of the record, is anything in this memorandum of 16 law that's Exhibit 2, does this need to be sealed in any way?

17 MR. FLOWERS: No, it was filed in the state court in 18 Towson and the order obviously is a public order.

19 THE COURT: I'll ask that -- now I have Exhibit 2 and 20 Exhibit 3.

21 MR. FLOWERS: I think that's right.

22 THE COURT: I didn't miss number one?

23 MR. FLOWERS: No, we had some other exhibits.
24 Unfortunately, we were unable to do a hearing today.

25 THE COURT: I appreciate the argument from both sides,

1 and we're adjourned until our next proceeding. And,
2 Mr. Bendann, you'll be back Monday morning.

3 THE DEFENDANT: Thank you.

4 THE CLERK: All rise. This Honorable Court now stands 5 in recess.

6 (Hearing adjourned.)
